Prayer Meeting - Wednesday 7.30pm

The Tottenham Seventh-day Adventist Church's Mission Statement
Our vision: We aspire to be good neighbours by bringing faith, hope and healing to the community through personal, corporate and collaborative intercession, to assist in creating a safe, strong and mutually beneficial caring and personal youth, reproductive and family health, gender equality and financial empowerment and skills development.
Our Mission: We give of our time, skills, resources and funds where necessary, to meet the needs of people in the community. We conduct a weekly Bible discussion, Bible study, prayer, family counselling, support and support groups. We run the local youth and an SATS, 9:30 am SATS for children, youth, family, support, study, fellowship and a meal. The church hall is available for hire.
We are a faith group and active in working in the community. We are a volunteer team in areas of health, relationships, wellbeing, underemployment careers and advice, HIV awareness programmes, counselling and guidance services.
